Giving Options

Our money and possessions, our treasures, are gifts from God that we are asked to care for and generously share. Yes, our financial contributions help maintain the daily operations and life of our parish, but more importantly, giving of our treasure blesses us, the giver. It's another way to live out our call to discipleship, putting our faith into action by entrusting our family's financial resources to God. Giving generously expresses our gratitude for the blessings we have received.
